Little Jimmy and the Squatches

Well I heard them say the squatch was around,
so I say, hey children gather 'round.
I gave them bows and I gave them guns,
said, com'on kids we gonna have some fun.
Move stealthily through this forest land,
we gonna catch ourselves a furry man.

Chorus:

We're hunt'n for a bigfoot, we're hunt'n for a yeti,
whatever you call it, it better get ready.
'Cause we got a squatch to catch, we got a squatch to sell,
then maybe we'll get up outta this hell.

Little Jimmy spotted him,
tried to shoot, but it turned grim.
Now Little Jimmy's got a bullet hole,
we're lost in the forest, don't know where to go.

Chorus

Little Jimmy screamed <sup>cried and</sup> and plead,
"Bigfoot please, help me!"
Bigfoot appeared and said without glee,
"We have a hospital just about East."

There was a secret city full of Bigfeets,
bustling about on their big streets,
a hospital with furry doctors and a clean smell,
They said, "We'll fix your kid, but you can't tell that us Bigfeets have been hiding so well."

We left promising not to say a word, that the squatches have been living so close to our world.
Little Jimmy's got a limp, but he'll be fine,
he'll know not to shoot himself next time.

Chorus
